What were your thoughts when the first COVID-19 cases were being diagnosed in China? Did you expect it to spread to the US?

Yes I did. I knew it would get here somehow but I didn't think it would be this drastic.

How have things changed for you and/or your family since the outbreak?

Not too much has changed. I definitely go out less but it's also forced me to really fix myself in a lot of ways. It's making me really look at my apartment and my daily things I do and make me want to better myself.

For you, what is the worst thing about this?

No Starbucks.

In your experience so far, what, if anything, has been positive about this?

I've been able to really look at my life and try and organize it.

Tell us about a moment or experience during this time that you will never forget.

All the game nights me and my family and girlfriend have had.

Pretend it is the year 2050 and another pandemic is looming--what would you tell someone who has just asked what it was like to live through the 2020 pandemic?

Take this time to reflect on yourself and really look at your life and not sulk in the house and think --oh I can't go anywhere or do anything. I bet every person has at least an entire list of things they could do with nothing to distract them at home.
